RESIGNATION OF CITY PHYSICIAN

Dr. Edmund Harrison
Gives up Work.

Will Be Succeeded by Dr. A. R. Wilson
on January First—Will Still Remain on City Board of Health—Other Matters
Attended to During Session of Aldermen Yesterday—Adjourned
Meeting to Be Held Tuesday Night
Week.

At yesterday's session of the Board of Aldermen Dr. Edmund Harrison tendered his resignation as city physician, the resignation to become effective on January 1. The resignation was accepted and the board elected Dr. A. R. Wilson as Dr. Harrison's successor.

Dr. Harrison has been city physician for several years and has rendered satisfactory service to the city. He has ever been watchful of the health interests of the city and to his efficient work in a large measure is the healthy condition of the city due. While the results are not as good as would likely have been the case had he received the financial support of the administration that should have been accorded him he always pressed forward in the work of making Greensboro a more healthy city.

Dr. Wilson, who will succeed him, is well qualified for the duties that will devolve upon him. He has been engaged in the practice of medicine for a number of years and has also been a member of the Board of Health.

Dr. Harrison gives as his reason for giving up the work is that he cannot give it the attention it should have without neglecting his patients, his work along this line having greatly increased since the death of his partner, Dr. Little, and he preferred giving up the city work rather than giving up his patients. However, he will still remain on the Board of Health to consult with and give his advise in matters pertaining to public health, taking the place that will be made vacant by the election of Dr. Wilson as city physician. In fact the two doctors will simply change positions.

The aldermen were in session less than two hours and only a few matters of general interest were brought up for consideration. When the board adjourned it was until Tuesday night, Dec. 20, at 7:30 o'clock. This was in view of the fact that Friday night, Dec. 23, would be a busy time and it was doubtful if there would be a meeting on that night.

An ordinance was passed, making some minor change in the meat inspection ordinance. Several sidewalk paving ordinances were passed. An ordinance offered by Alderman Clendenin, providing that all persons installing gasoline and vapor lighting machines and apparatus shall appear before the Fire Commission and demonstrate that they understand their business so they can install their fixtures without danger of explosions or fires. There was some objection to the ordinance and it went over until the next meeting.

The mayor and city clerk were instructed to issue a warrant to cover the damages recovered and costs in the Gilbreath case. Gilbreath was awarded $2,500 because of a hole in a street, his wagon wheel falling into the hole throwing him out and causing permanent injuries.

It was ordered that the license to sell liquor on physicians' prescriptions, which was granted the Holton Drug Company, be transferred to the firm Conyers Sykes, which firm had purchased the bankrupt stock of the former licensee.

The Street Commission again presented the matter of surface drainage where the pipes go under Martin street at Bragg intersects and also on Walker avenue near Cedar intersection. It appears that the drainage pipes are not sufficient to carry this water in time of rains and property owners adjoining are complaining. A committee, consisting of Alderman Clendenin, Smith and Ellington, was appointed to co-operate with the commission in arriving at a solution of the question.

MUCH TOBACCO BEING SOLD HERE

Bright Grades Bring High Prices—Low Grades Little Off—Record Breaking Sales Expected Today.

People who are not accustomed to attend the tobacco sales in the various warehouses of the city have little idea what an enormous business is being done in this line. During the one month of November at one warehouse $51,000 was paid to the farmers coming to this city, for tobacco. This means an increase of sales at the stores, and prosperity all round.

At one warehouse yesterday sales averaged $13.75 per hundred; one farmer sold some bright tobacco at $25, another at $18, and another at $17.

Sales are still heavy, and prospects are that today's sales will break all previous records. There is a scarcity of wrappers, and the low grades are a little off, but bright grades are high.

GOT COLD COMFORT

Express People Say They Can't Give Any Better Service From Washington and Points North.

The committee from the Chamber of Commerce appointed to confer with the officials of the Southern Express Company to see if the express facilities here could not be improved met with Superintendent O. M. Sadler and Greensboro Agent W. W. Allen yesterday and talked the situation over.

The representatives of the Southern Express Company said they were willing to give Greensboro better express service (from Washington and points north of there is but one express a day) but the trouble lay with the lack of trains, they said. No. 37, they said, would be a good train for express but the Southern runs it solid Pullman and will not haul express on it.

The express people promised to give the people the very best and prompt delivery possible, but they could not, for the reasons stated, promise more frequent service.

The only express from Washington and beyond comes on No. 43, arriving here at 7:10 p. m. No. 35 has an express service, but only for valuables.

AT THE Y. W. C. A.

A Delightful Entertainment For the Nurses of St. Leo's Hospital Yesterday Evening.

Yesterday evening the nurses of St. Leo's hospital were delightfully entertained in the rooms of the Y. W. C. A.

One interesting feature of the evening was a picture guessing contest. The pictures were taken from ads, the ladies being required to guess the ad. The microscope was used. Miss Mary Jones showed pictures of scenes of interest viewed while on her European tour. Miss Cain talked also on the general work of the association.

After the more instructive part of the program, refreshments were served; there was plenty of music; and altogether, the ladies spent a most delightful and enjoyable evening.

Nan Patterson Marries Again.

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 9.—Nan Patterson, the chorus girl twice tried for the murder of Caesar Young in New York, is living in Seattle, the wife of Captain Summer Prescott, head of a manufacturing concern at Marinette, Wis., where he formerly lived. The couple were married in St. Paul in the latter part of October, coming to Seattle immediately afterwards. Captain Prescott last night admitted the identity of his bride, at the same time expressing regret that the secret had been discovered. Even Prescott's parents, who live in Chicago and are said to be wealthy, were kept in ignorance of their daughter-in-law's identity.

The Ruling Received.

Superior Court Clerk Forbes has received from the State Supreme Court the recent decision affirming the lower court in the case against Dave Whitfield, Tom Watson and Sapp Hogan, the negroes charged with dynamiting the home of a negro detective. The negroes were sentenced to terms in the State prison for the offense and will be sent to Raleigh in a few days to begin their sentence.

Only Three Arrests In December.

The negro locked up yesterday afternoon was the third person to grace the city prison halls during the month, nine days of which have passed. Of the three persons arrested during that period one was a drunk, one was a vagrant and the one arrested yesterday is a thief.

Death of Infant.

The eight month old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Z. R. Yountz, 10 Water street, White Oak, died yesterday morning at 6 o'clock. The remains will be taken to Graham this morning for interment.

CHAMPION BOY CORN GROWERS

Those Who Won Prizes in State Contest.

Three Prizes Awarded in Each Congressional District—Some Boys Raised a Hundred and Forty Odd Bushels To Acre—There Were 1,115 Boys In Contest—Fifty Per Cent Increase In Yield In Last 10 Years.

Raleigh, Dec. 9.—Reporting to the annual session of the State Board of Agriculture his work as director of the Farmer's Institute and Boys' Corn Club divisions T. B. Parker shows 1,115 boys in 24 counties contested in the crop just harvested, the reports showing yields of from 20 to 146.28 bushels to the acre.

The report makes public the winners of the prizes in the ten districts into which the state was divided as follows: First, second and third prizes for each district being given in their order:

First district—J. Lester Forehand, Chowan county, 146.83 bushels; Geo. B. Hardison, Beaufort, 70; Cecil H. Hollows, 65.

Second district—Chas. Parker, Jr., Hertford, 132.29; Raleigh Parker, Hertford, 122.65; Plato Mitchell, Hertford, 113.75.

Third district—Leonard H. Brown, Wayne, 145.88; Ben R. Lewis, Wayne, 145.36; Donnie Newsome, Wayne, 127.

Fourth district—Herbert Stephenson, Wake, 137.14; Louis Bartholomew, Raleigh, 115.18; Vassil Green, Wake, 109; Jno. Roberson, Nash, 109.

Fifth district—Chas. F. Phillips, Randolph, 142.96; Oscar Hause, Forsyth, 126.37; Austin Isley, Alamance, 99.6.

Sixth district—Everett Nordan, Hargett, 131.3; Lischer A. Britt, Sampson, 107.47; Hall Robertson, Roberson, 103.25.

Seventh district—J. H. Smith, Mecklenburg, 135.32; Marvin Lackey, Mecklenburg, 92.5; Willie J. Rollins, Union, 90.3.

Eighth district—Clarence Coffey, Caldwell, 87.56; Lee P. Frane, Surry, 87.2; W. Cary Coffee, Caldwell, 86.34.

Ninth district—W. Ernest Starnes, Catawba, 146.28; Willie Bostick, Cleveland, 102; Chivan Bostick, Cleveland, 101.5.

Tenth district—Harvey B. Culberson, Cherokee, 83; Hugh Best, Haywood, 81.3; B. A. Welch, Swain, 67.5.

The average yield for the contests the state over 58.75 bushels. There were 83 boys obtaining yields of over 75 bushels, 33 boys over 100 bushels; ten boys over 130 bushels and 5 boys over 140 bushels.

The report shows the most successful year in the history of the farmer's institute work 364 regular institutes for farmers and farmers' wives with a total attendance of 53,627. The report commences with pride upon a fifty per cent increase in the yield in corn for the past ten years in North Carolina and attributes a good big part of the credit to the demonstration work that has been pushed with increasing volume in various sections of the state; these demonstrations being convincing arguments for better methods of farming, which, the report declares, includes rotation of crops, growing more legumes, addition of more humus to the soil, deeper breaking of the lands, better seed and better cultivation.

Captain Parker reports to the board that the farmers in every part of the state are becoming more interested in better methods of farming and are becoming more and more willing to try what they consider new methods of farming that promise increased yields and larger profits. They are showing special interest in legumes, especially clovers, vetches and soy beans and the cow peas is holding sway in every section of the state as a soil builder.

Director Parker calls on the state board of agriculture to appropriate the usual $500 toward prizes for the 1911 boys contests. He reports that thousands of dollars have been raised in various counties as additional prizes and firms and corporations are announcing prizes to quicken interest in this juvenile corn culture contest. The board will at least offer the same prizes as last season.

The ruling received.

BUDGET FOR THE NEXT SIX MONTHS

Those Who Won Prizes in State Contest.

State Board of Agriculture Plans to Spend Something Like $100,000—Director For Boys' Corn Club Work—Sad Death.

Raleigh, Dec. 9.—The State Board of Agriculture completed a three days' session today, having received the reports of all the heads of divisions of work and adopted the budget for the next six months running well up towards $100,000. This in addition to action as to a number of matters of general interest. It was ordered that "floats" of ground phosphate rock be subjected to the regular fertilizer tax. A resolution was also passed asking that the legislature empower the board to make the fertilizer tax apply also to lime and potash goods. Provision was made for extra early fertilizer analysis bulletins at the beginning of each season. An order was made authorizing the appointment of an assistant to the director of farmer's institutes, the assistant to devote his entire time to the boys' corn contest division.

Master James Warren, three year old son of Mrs. H. L. Warren, died last night from the effects of a most distressing accident. He was running about the room with a small stick in his mouth and fell so that the stick was driven down his throat, cutting into his neck. He steadily grew worse in spite of the fact that x-ray examination showed that no part of the stick remained in the wound. Bronchial pneumonia is said to have caused the death.

The Merrick-Moore, Spaulding Co., Durham, was chartered today with $125,000 capital by John Merrick, A. M. Moore and C. C. Spaulding. There were also charters for the Aberdeen Store Co., of Aberdeen, capital $10,000, by H. A. Page, Jr., and others.

Raleigh lost through death last night a valued and highly esteemed citizen.

Miss Lula Woodward who has been in the mercantile business here for thirty years. She was 63 years old and had been ill only a few days. Three sisters survive her—Miss N. E. Woodward, Mrs. J. D. Riggan and Mrs. L. F. Medlin.

MRS. MARY BAKER EDDY LEFT A HUGE FORTUNE

Was Worth a Million and a Half—All Goes To Christian Science Church.

Boston, Dec. 9.—According to The Post this morning, the will of Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy, which will be made public in a few days, leaves practically all of the $1,500,000 estate to the Christian Science church.

The board of directors of the church is to have the final decision as to the form the bequest will take, it is said. Ex-Congressman Henry M. Baker, of Bow, N. H., a relative, is named as administrator, according to The Post.

The will was drawn in 1904 in Concord, N. H.

Not a dollar is left, it is said, to Geo. W. Glover, of Lead, S. D., or to Dr. E. J. Foster Eddy, the son and adopted son, respectively, of Mrs. Eddy. Both recently received substantial sums from her estate after a suit.

Beguiles from $1,000 to $10,000 go to Mrs. Eddy's household staff. Calvin Frye, one of her advisers, gets $18,000, it is said, and the Rev. Irving C. Tomlinson, and Mrs. Laura E. Sargent are also beneficiaries.

The members of the board of directors and other leaders of the mother church are not mentioned in the will. According to The Post's informant, there is nothing in the will which relates to the location of Mrs. Eddy's burial place.

Greensboro Has a Musical Composer.

Mr. Edgar E. Huston, of the Cheek Huston Piano and Organ Company, is a composer of note and one of his compositions was played here Thursday by Sousa's band. It took splendidly with the audience. The title was "Parson Johnson's Rag Time Mule." Mr. Huston said the band played the music just as he wanted it played, going through it faultlessly though they had never seen it before. He has composed a number of pieces.

Mrs. Hurley's Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Anna Hurley, whose death occurred at Proximity Thursday afternoon, was held from the residence yesterday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. E. Wooley, pastor of the deceased. The interment followed in the Proximity cemetery.

Death of Infant.

The eight month old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Z. R. Yountz, 10 Water street, White Oak, died yesterday morning at 6 o'clock. The remains will be taken to Graham this morning for interment.

THE AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION TODAY

Meeting of Interest In Court House This Morning—Addresses by T. B. Parker and I. O. Schaub—Auction of Corn Raised In Contest—Prizes To The Men.

This morning at 10:30 o'clock in the court house the Guilford Agricultural Association will hold an interesting and important meeting and a large attendance of not only the members of the association but of farmers generally is looked for.

There will be addresses by T. B. Parker and I. O. Schaub, of the State Department of Agriculture, on matters pertaining to farm work. These addresses will be of a practical and helpful nature and should be heard by all farmers.

Following the addresses a short business session of the association will be held, after which there will be an auction sale of corn raised by the boys in the corn contest. Each contestant agreed to furnish a bushel of corn, the proceeds from the sale to be used in paying the prizes offered the boys. This corn is of fine quality and farmers should be on hand to get some good seed corn for next year.

The prizes to the men who entered the contest will also be awarded at this time.

The boys will also attend the meeting and following the session the prize winners will give a banquet to the contestants at the Guilford Cafe. It is expected that a number of the members of the association will be present at the banquet also.

REMEMBRANCES.

A Word to Kind and Generous Is Sufficient, Says Miss Cain.

A correspondent signing himself "interested" recently suggested through the papers that the employers give their employees a few half-holidays in which to do their Christmas shopping early. Surely this would be in keeping with the Christmas spirit. Perhaps the employer who is seeking to disseminate the spirit of Christmas will receive kindly a further suggestion. A young woman was heard to say the other day, "I'd like to do my shopping early, but my employer usually gives me some extra money as a Christmas remembrance and that is my Christmas spending money, and as that doesn't come till the day before Christmas, and I won't run bills for Christmas presents, I am obliged to do my shopping on Christmas eve." A word to the kind and generous is sufficient.

And there are only five more shopping days till Dec. 15.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE

Let there be no evasion—we mean chronic and supposed incurable cases involving dropsy, albumen and casts. They are curable in a great majority of all cases.

Let us cite a typical case—that of Mr. R. F. Nitacke, of 1246 Spaight Street, Madison, Wis. There had been eight physicians on this case and it got so extreme that he finally had one of the last symptoms; namely, failing eyesight. In January, 1907, the doctors admitted that nothing further could be done, and they sent him to Eureka Springs, Arkansas. He continued to get worse, the dropsy finally reaching the stomach, heart and lungs. At one time tests showed albumen as high as 75 per cent.

He learned of Fulton's Renal Compound and began to take it July 3. Dropsy began slowly to decline and the albumen dropped to forty, then to twenty, then to ten, and finally to two per cent in May, 1908.

The patient is now back to his employment and is devoting full time to his business.

Patients desiring to know more of this treatment can get full literature by writing to the John J. Fulton Company, 645 Battery St., San Francisco, Cal.

Fulton's Renal Compound can be had in your city at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

We desire every patient to write us who is not noting the usual improvement by the third week.

THE MONODIET

about which we hear so much, does not mean living on one food exclusively, but on foods that harmonize.

Certain elements of nutrition are essential to health, but all these elements cannot be obtained from any one food—hence the necessity of a variety.

Deficiency of one or more of these elements, such as iron, for instance, in the blood, will cause anaemia, run-down condition and sleeplessness.

If you are one of the unfortunate who have drifted into this state, change your diet, eat foods that are rich in the mineral elements of nutrition, and take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, which contains no oil and supplies iron to the blood in most easily assimilated form.

Vinol creates an appetite, aids digestion, makes pure, healthy blood. In this natural manner it builds up the run-down, weak and debilitated. If you don't find this to be a fact we will return your money if you will try a bottle. Fariss-Klutz Drug Co., Greensboro, N.C.

What a Heap of Happiness it Would Bring to Greensboro Homes.

Hard to do housework with an aching back.

Brings you hours of misery at leisure or at work.

If women only knew the cause—that Backache pains come from sick kidneys.

Twould save much needless woe. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys. Many residents of this vicinity endorse them.

Mrs. M. W. Fuller, Mill St., Graham, N.C., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills with highly satisfactory results and am pleased to recommend them to other kidney sufferers. I had severe pains through the small of my back, accompanied by headaches. I heard Doan's Kidney Pills so highly spoken of on many occasions that at last I procured a box and began their use. They drove away my trouble in a short time and it gives me pleasure to state that I have never had an attack since."

THE WONDERS OF ARSENIC

A Cumulative Poison Used to Beautify The Complexion.

Washington Post.

"You no doubt have observed the lily-white complexion of some women. These women are sacrificing years of their lives for that beautiful skin by the use of arsenic," said D. V. Duvall, a chemist of Manchester, England.

It is a well-known fact that thousands of women in all countries of the world use poison in small quantities to bleach their skin. It is an effective means of whitening and clearing the complexion, but the complexion given by its use has no permanency unless the absorption of the drug be continued.

"Arsenic, as science has long told us, is an accumulative poison. When one takes it either by prescription for the upbuilding of an appetite or for the bleaching of the skin he does not feel many ill effects for several years. The effect of the drug is bracing and makes a person feel like eating. It also aids the digestion. The average user of the poison takes it in such small quantities that he does not realize how much of it will accumulate in his system in the course of four or five years.

"Being an accumulative poison it often takes that length of time to see the results of the drug. Then the user may complain of not being able to control his fingers or toes. Subsequently he loses control of his hands and arms. Arsenical poisoning is the result.

"Five years ago in Manchester there was an epidemic of paralysis. Several thousands of persons were stricken. Several hundred died and the medical profession of England made a thorough investigation of the malady and traced it to beer. The investigators discovered that the brewers were using a glucose in the brewing of their product, which was found to contain a small quantity of arsenic. This drug, imbibed in small quantities in beer, had gradually accumulated in the bodies of thousands of persons, had impoverished their blood and left a great percentage of them helpless."

You Must Read This if You Want the Benefit.

J. W. Greer, Greenwood, La., suffered with a severe case of lumbago. "The pains were so intense I was forced to hypodermic injections for relief. These attacks started with a pain in the small of my back which gradually became fairly paralyzing. My attention was attracted to Foley's Kidney Remedy and I am glad to say after using this wonderful medicine I am no longer bothered in any way by my old enemy lumbago." Howard Gardner.

WOMEN IN LEGISLATURE

A Test of Woman Suffrage is Causing Constructive Legislation.

Minneapolis Journal.

Four women have been elected to the Legislature of Colorado. It is a striking piece of news, for, although women have the full suffrage in Colorado and are eligible to all offices, they have held comparatively few. It has grown to be the custom in Colorado, Idaho and Wyoming, where women vote, to award them a clerkship here and there, or to allow them to run for superintendent of schools, but real political power has been denied them.

The test of the value of woman's suffrage, it is quite evident, is not in the administrative offices, which one sex can take care of as well as another, but in the larger field of constructive legislation. It has been often remarked that there was little evidence that woman's suffrage had given Colorado a better code of laws than other states enjoy.

Perhaps this was because women did not participate as actively in politics as their voting privilege permitted. Perhaps it was because they have not developed the constructive faculty. The election and service of four women will not be a complete test, but it should do something to throw light on the problem.

Four women can at least make a protest against bad legislation. They can at least offer bills that tend toward better conditions. The fact that they are there will be observed by the whole country, and their success or failure will have more effect upon the suffrage cause in other States than realms of argument and oceans of appeals.

The men of America are waiting to be shown three things: First, that women really want to vote; second, that they will do something with it if they get it; third, that it can be done without taking the bloom off womanhood. Colorado is the laboratory of woman's suffrage and on the result of the experiments there depends much in the suffrage discussion.

Take Care!

Remember that when your kidneys are affected your life is in danger. M. May, Rochester, N.Y., says: "My trouble started with a sharp shooting pain over my back which grew worse daily. I felt sluggish and tired, my kidney action was irregular and infrequent. I started using Foley's Kidney Pills. Each dose seemed to put new life and strength into me, and now I am completely cured and feel better and stronger than for years." Howard Gardner.

That Little Stenographer

By M. QUAD

Copyright, 1910, by Associated Literary Press.

The firm of Thomas & Co. was composed of Joseph and James, brothers. They were old fashioned men and old fashioned in their methods of doing business. They ran their offices on the longhand principle. There was no stenographer, no typewriter, no dictation, no adding machine. Their bookkeeper was young in years, but old fashioned too.

It was one morning when both brothers were busy at their desks writing out letters in the way their fathers had done before them that the place was invaded. The invader was a female, young and good looking. She was also petite and breezy. She wasn't bit afraid of the men who looked at her with amazement written on their faces. She said she had called to see about a place.

She would come for $8 a week to begin, and soon she would want more. Not a word from the partners.

The day was Friday. On the next day she would send her typewriter and on Monday show up herself. She motioned to a room which could be cleaned out for her accommodation. Then she fluttered out as she had fluttered in.

"Well?" queried James after a long minute.

"Well?" queried Joseph in reply.

"We'll have to take her."

"We will."

"I have felt for years that it must come."

"So have I."

Not a word did the partners say to each other until they were at the lunch table. They had dined at the same table for ten years. They had always ordered soup and eaten it before talking. When they had done so on this occasion, James observed:

"She's coming."

"Certainly," was the reply.

"We can't stop her."

"Impossible."

"And you are a bachelor."

"And so are you."

The conversation ended there. Next day the typewriter and its stand came and were placed in the little room. James stood in the door and looked at it. Then Joseph stood in the door and looked. Then the bookkeeper came and had a look. It was queer; it was amazing; it was incomprehensible.

Monday morning Miss Lacey, as she had incidentally called herself, floated in. Then she dusted her machine and came out with pencil in hand to say:

"Well, I am ready for dictation."

James looked at Joseph, and Joseph looked at James. Then, bracing himself as a man does to meet the grim monster, James proceeded to dictate his first letter, and Joseph went off into the warehouse so as not to add to his perturbation. The dictation was a success. It was a success because Miss Lacey made it so. She made it so by saying:

"Oh, that's a wrong word. We must use another. That's bad grammar, and we must change it. You don't mean to say so and so, but so and so."

She constructed the letter to suit herself and brought it back for signature. She did this with three letters and then let up. She saw that James was sinking under it. Next day Joseph dictated, and it was the same. When they went out to lunch together and after they had had their soup James queried:

"Brother Joseph, do you think we can stand it?"

"I thing we'll have to," was the dismal reply.

And they did have to. Miss Lacey took charge of the office from the first day. In two weeks she said she was worth $10 a week, and James nodded to Joseph, and Joseph nodded to the man in the glass cage. In four weeks Miss Lacey got another raise. She raised herself to $12 per. She had got so that she read the business letters herself and answered them without dictation. Just a suggestion or two and the thing was done. James had thoughts, and Joseph had thoughts, but Miss Lacey had been with them for six weeks before they had anything like a confidential conversation. Then after the soup James observed:

"She'll raise herself to fifteen next."

"And then to twenty," replied Joseph. "Joseph, you are a bachelor."

"So are you, James."

"You could marry her and thus solve the problem."

"So could you."

"Joseph, we must speak to the bookkeeper. It is his duty to die for us if necessary."

When Miss Lacey had given herself another raise of salary the bookkeeper was spoken to.

"I'd get into a breach of promise suit with 'oother one," was his solemn reply, and the subject was closed.

One morning when Miss Lacey had held her place for two months and another raise was expected she failed to show up. James and Joseph fidgeted in their chairs. The bookkeeper looked like a man expecting trouble. As time sped on James looked hopeful. As more time sped on Joseph returned the look. Just before noon a note was handed in. It read:

"Married this morning. Resignation respectfully submitted."

"Joseph!"

"James!"

And they rose up and hugged each other, and went waltzing around the room, and the smile of the bookkeeper was angelic to behold.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Newbro's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. That the early shopping campaign is bearing fruit is shown by the crowded condition of the stores during these bright and bracing pre-holiday days.

Senator Tillman is hoping that the Democratic donkey will stop braying and making a spectacle of himself. The Senator has been unwell in recent years but when he was in good form he certainly did his share of making the Democratic party ridiculous.

It develops that the Republican Congressional committee appropriated $2,000 to the Congressional campaign in this State. This is a substantial sum, yet it doesn't indicate that the committee thought North Carolina debatable ground.

Being largely responsible for the inequalities before the law which result in Socialism, the Republicans cannot be expected to have any sympathy for the Socialists. The Raleigh Caucasian says:

A press dispatch states that the inmates of the insane asylum in Louisiana will issue a newspaper. The dispatch did not state whether it would be Democratic or Socialist in politics.

Knowing that California has in its borders such great cities as San Francisco and Los Angeles, one would guess offhand that its total population would be much greater than North Carolina with its small cities. But California has only a pauper 170,000 more than North Carolina. The Old North State hasn't any large cities, but it has plenty of small ones and a rural area that is becoming more and more thickly settled.

It is a pity that so many men and boys crowd the court rooms when cases such as for example the white slave case now being heard in Federal court are tried. We believe it is true that most people have a morbid inclination to hear the evidence and see the witnesses in such cases. But the inclination is, as we have designated it, morbid and not healthy and natural. It is an inclination which the higher nature in one impels him to fight against. It is also an inclination which, if yielded to often enough, is likely to produce a break-down of the moral character. A man is, of course, in a sense blameworthy for his inclinations, but he is thoroughly blameworthy when he yields to low and degraded inclinations. The inclinations to attend trials of the white slave type should be resisted if a man has an aspiration to lead a clean, pure and wholesome life or if he has any concern for the example that he sets. It would show up well for a community if it could not muster any bigger crowd for a white slave case than for a dry and technical civil case.

There has been nothing more comical in the newspaper world than the attempt on the part of the Richmond Evening Journal to pose in its editorial columns as the Guardian Angel of the temperance people of Virginia, while in its advertising columns it aids and abets the distilleries and breweries in their efforts to destroy the value of Local Option in dry counties and cities by the nefarious "jug" trade. Either the Journal is a victim of an entire lack of logic in its editorial or in its business departments and sees nothing contradictory in such a performance, or it has a very poor opinion of the reasoning faculties of its readers and considers them a credulous, gullible set, or it is utterly careless of any sense of responsibility for the impression its course may make upon anybody.—Richmond Virginian.

It seems to us that the Virginian scores on the Journal decidedly in the foregoing. A newspaper that will pretend to espouse the cause of prohibition and will at the same time advertise the jug houses is guilty of deception as well as inconsistency. Advertising has been well defined as salesmanship. To sell advertising space to liquor concerns, whether in wet or dry territory, is to become a liquor salesman and a liquor salesman posing as the guardian of the anti-booze forces is, as the Virginian well says, utterly comical. The Virginian, by the way, is proving an able champion of the prohibition forces in Virginia and its news service is such as to make it deserve success as a business venture. But of course whether it will be permanent institution or not remains to be seen.

OH, GIRLS, DIMPLES ARE GOING OUT!

Annabelle Whitford makes the startling announcement that dimples are going out of date, and she really should be considered an authority on the subject, since she lately had a slight operation performed on her face which removed two of these generally termed "beauty spots."

"When dimples were solely a gift of nature," she says, "they were really attractive, and as much to be desired as a head of golden hair! but what chemicals have done for the would-be blonde, beauty doctors have accomplished for the women who crave a dimpled cheek, and now it is as hard to distinguish the surgeon-made dimple from the real article as it is to tell the drug store blonde from the real golden head."—New York Telegraph.

Noted Singers At A. & M. College. (Communicated.)

The A. & M. College expects to be favored with the appearance in the college chapel of two noted singers on Dec. 12, Mme. Fitzhugh and Mme. E. Azalia Hackley, both of New York and singers of wide experience and training, will be the attraction and a musical treat is to be expected. They have traveled extensively and their far reaching experience and ability will assure an excellent program. They are artists in their line and all students of music should be present.

Superior Court.

The regular December term of Guilford Superior court will convene Monday morning Judge C. C. Lyon, of Elizabethton, presiding. There are seventy-five cases on the docket, none of them being of much interest. The most important case docketed so far is the one against the Red C Oil Company for violating the State oil inspection law by halting oil of inferior grade.

A Few Exceptions.

There was no love lost between Rufus and his teacher. Rufus thought the teacher was a severe and occasionally unjust person who had never known what it was to be young and full of fun, while the teacher considered the little darky both stupid and mischievous.

"You are not attending to what I say, Rufus," said the teacher one day in the midst of an address to her class.

"Yes, teacher, truly I is," said Rufus, with the reversion to the speech he had learned at home which often accompanied great earnestness.

"You should never say 'I is,'" commanded the teacher. "I have told you that a hundred times. You know the correct form. There are no exceptions to its use. Give me two examples at once."

"Yas'm," said Rufus meekly. "I am one of de letters of de alphabet. I am a pronoun."—Youth's Companion.

Rossini's Jealousy.

Rossini was intolerably jealous of all his musical contemporaries, and particularly of Meyerbeer. In 1836 he heard "The Huguenots," and on listening to the performance from the beginning to the end he made up his mind that Meyerbeer had excelled him and determined to write no more operatic music. He lived until 1868, but produced nothing for the lyric stage. His thirty-two years of retirement were spent in the pleasures of a voluntary. He was particularly fond of good eating and drinking and assembled about him the youngest and gayest society he could attract to his house.

His Way of Showing His Love.

"You wrong him, papa. He does not love me for my money. He scoffs at the world's sordid eagerness for wealth."

"What proof have you, child?"

"Why, only last night he told me he didn't care if he never was able to make a penny in his life if he only had me!"

Getting to It.

Anxious Mother—Has Mr. Bashful proposed yet? Daughter—Not exactly, but last evening when I was holding Little Dick in my lap Mr. Bashful went to the piano and sang, "Would I Were a Boy Again."

Tool His Advice.

"He told his wife she ought to take cooking lessons."

"Did she?"

"Well, yes. She sent for her mother to come and give her a three months' course."

A Reality.

The shopped said, and grappled with His duties on the spot, "Old Santa Claus may be a myth, but the kid at home is not."

GOOD WORK DONE.

Directors of the North Carolina Children's Home Society Meet—Gratifying Report Read.

The North Carolina Children's Home Society held its quarterly meeting Thursday evening, in the office of the society, in the Southern Life & Trust building. Those of the directors present were Mrs. Chas. D. McIver, J. Van Lindley, W. L. Brewer, Dr. J. S. Betts.

This society has been in operation for seven years, during which time, according to report submitted by Superintendent Streeter, it has found and cared for 1066 children—either orphans or those from homes whose parents are not prepared, on account of poverty or other causes, to provide for them in a proper way.

The rule of the society is to help any child that is in trouble, and this it certainly does in ways varied according to peculiar and individual needs. During the past quarter 43 children came under the watchcare and direction of the society. A corps of thoroughly trained and efficient men and women are employed regularly to keep on the qui vive for children needing help and to visit their homes—or staying places—in order to do anything within their power to bring such children into an environment of sympathy with ability and intelligence behind it. Seventy-two such visits were made during the quarter. Other visits are made to homes whence requisitions have been made for children, in order to ascertain whether they be suitable places for children to be reared. If it be found that a child may have educational and cultural advantages and parental treatment, then an available child may be placed in such home. Twenty-four children were placed during the quarter. Applications were received for children from 38 homes.

The society has no endowment, but is dependent upon contributions, it being strictly benevolent in its provisions and operations. For the maintenance of its work something more than $6,500 per year is required, it having expended $4,500 since 1903.

Contributions should be sent to the superintendent, W. B. Streeter, Greensboro, N. C.

"CINDERELLA" LAST NIGHT.

Play Cleverly Presented by Senior Class of Normal College.

The dramatic season opened last night at the Normal with Cinderella, played by members of the Senior class.

The young ladies had been unusually well trained for this performance, and were costumed so splendidly and appropriately for their various parts, that, altogether, the play really had more of professionalism in its cast and technique than any amateur presentation of the season.

A large crowd was present, and the occasion was one of much interest and enjoyment.

The next attraction at the Normal will be a violin and piano recital Tuesday, December 13. The pianist, Miss Laraber, is the only American pianist who has ever played by special invitation, with the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Miss Hardeman was with Sousa's concert band for several years, and comes with the highest endorsements as a finished musician.

DEATH OF MRS. DIMMOCK

Dies At Ripe Age of 88 At Home of Mr. R. W. Murray.

Mrs. Mary M. Dimmock died yesterday at 1:30 p. m., at the home of Mr. R. W. Murray, on Asheboro street. Mrs. Murray was a cousin of the deceased.

Mrs. Dimmock came here from Washington, N. C., about twelve years ago. She was 88 years of age and had been a widow since 1859. She was a member of the Presbyterian church at Washington.

Mr. R. W. Murray and Mr. S. D. Brown, a nephew, left last night for Washington, N. C., with the body. The funeral and interment will be at that place this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Liquor Made Him Wild.

Sergeant Jones and Officer McFarland last night locked up Bud Farlowe, a white man, on the charge of threatening to shoot his family and neighbors as well.

Farlowe, who lives on North Haywood street, got on a spree and last night went perfectly wild. He ran his wife and children from home at the point of a gun and threatened to shoot some of his neighbors who proffered their assistance to Mrs. Farlowe.

The officers were notified and they found Farlowe with his gun lying handy.

However, he gave them no trouble. He was devoid of reason and it appeared that the "white lightning" he had been drinking was of the worst kind. Farlowe is the fourth person arrested in December.

Keep the Pot A-Boiling.

Lieut. Miller, of the Salvation Army, expects today to place somewhere in the vicinity of the postoffice one of the regular pots used every Christmas to receive cash donations for a Christmas dinner for the poor. The public will be asked to keep the kettle boiling.

Another pot will be placed later on, on Elm street near the passenger station. It is planned to provide a Christmas dinner for about three hundred families.

Impressed With City.

During this week police officers from Danville, Winston, Charlotte and High Point, have been here attending federal court and in talking with Chief Neely all have been impressed with the good order that is observed in the city. The Danville officers gave some interesting figures in comparing the arrests for drunkenness in Danville before and after the saloons were voted. One officer stated that since coming to the city he had seen but one person under the influence of whiskey and he came in on the train in a drunken condition.

Students' Recital.

The students of the department of music, Greensboro Female College, will give a recital Monday night at 8:30 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
DEPARTMENT OF STATE.
Certificate of Dissolution.

To All to Whom These Presents May Come—Greetings:

Whereas, it appears to my satisfaction, by duly authenticated record of the proceedings for the voluntary dissolution thereof by the unanimous consent of all the stockholders, deposited in my office, that the Aden Axle Lubricating Company, a corporation of this State, whose principal office is situated at No. —

Street, in the City of Greensboro, County of Guilford, State of North Carolina (Joseph Aden being the agent therein and in charge thereof, upon whom process may be served) has complied with the requirements of Chapter 21, Revision of 1905, entitled "Corporations" preliminary to the issuing of this certificate of dissolution:

Now, Therefore, I, J. Bryan Grimes, Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina, do hereby certify that the said corporation did, on the 21st day of November 1910, file in my office a duly executed and attested consent in writing to the dissolution of said corporation, executed by all of the stockholders thereof, which said consent and the records of the proceedings aforesaid are now on file in my said office as provided by law.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereto set my hand and affixed my official seal, at Raleigh, this the 21st day of November A. D. 1910.

J. BRYAN GRIMES,
(Official Seal). Secretary of State.

A GIRL BRIDEGRoOM

Bride's New Name Permits Claim to Such Distinction.

Duquoin, Ill., Dec. 8.—Miss Lillian M. Sturm became a Bridegroom at Duquoin when she decided to change her name to that of a St. Louis fireman.

Roy E. Bridegroom, of St. Louis, was the bridegroom who made it possible for the young woman to lay claim to such a distinction. His ambition for some time had been that she should not only become a bride, but a Bridegroom as well. Bridegroom, while anxious to be the bridegroom, thought two Bridegrooms at a wedding were better than one Bridegroom.

County Clerk Taffee looked from the bridegroom-elect to the Bridegroom-to-be when they walked into his office and asked for a license. He thought the man was jesting when he replied "Bridegroom" to the question of "Name, please?" Some argument ensued before Taffee saw a big white light and issued the license.

NOISELESS SOUP SPOON

St. Louis Man Guarantees It to Prevent Both Sound and Scooping.

St. Louis, Dec. 7.—The noiseless soup spoon has been designed by a St. Louis man. He guarantees positively that one cannot inhale soup through his spoon and make a noise at the same time. His name is H. S. Campbell. His spoon is made somewhat like those drinking cups for men with troublesome mustaches.

The spoon has a lid over one-half of its surface, with a slit through which the soup enters the mouth. One of its advantages, in Campbell's estimation, is that with it you must dip your soup from you, not toward you.

"Makes for good manners, don't you know," he said. "Consumme, puree of navy bean, julienne and most varieties of vegetable soup can be absorbed through the spoon as now made. If mulligatawny, split pea and mock turtle soup are found to require a large aperture, a special type of spoon will be constructed."

Boys you have a chance now to win the bicycle. One half of the Mother's Joy has been sold, at the Greensboro Drug Co. We are going to give two watches also, one to the next highest boy's sales, and one to the third highest, and the bicycle to the highest. Greensboro Drug Co.

Way to Treat Venison.

The sportsman was explaining to a few of his uninitiated friends.

"If you don't like venison," he said, "it is because it has not been prepared properly. I think I know the kind you have tried to eat, and I agree with you it is not fit. After the deer has been shot the carcass probably has been allowed to lie around until the blood has discolored the meat and really has almost tainted it. Few hunters dress their game carefully enough. As soon as a deer is killed the carcass should be thoroughly bled, skinned, the entrails removed and the meat hung up in the dry air for some hours. Thorough and prompt bleeding is of the utmost importance. Venison prepared in this way is comparatively light in color—that is, it is clear, bright red, and the fat is white and clean. There is no strong, rank taste." New York Press.

Dad push your boy on and help him to get the bicycle at the Greensboro Drug Co. by selling Mother's Joy. It is a great lesson to him.

When the girls are just tickled to death over a fellow, he, of course, thinks he is a lady killer.

Have you boils, sores and indications of bad blood? There is danger of diphteria. Vick's Sarsaparilla will relieve this condition promptly—50c.

SOUTHERN MILL VILLAGES

Afford Better Conditions Than the People Encountered Elsewhere.

South Atlantic Quarterly.

In South Carolina 150,000 persons, or one-fifth of its white population, live in cotton mill villages, while in the counties of Greenville, Spartanburg and Anderson one-third of the population is in these villages, and the villages continue to grow.

The South Carolina mill village is usually a separate community, sometimes having a population of more than 5,000 inhabitants. It is entirely owned and controlled by the mill and its residents have no village corporation of any kind.

These villages are built by the mill management for the simple reason that their people could not otherwise be housed near a mill. They attract much more attention from strangers than from Southerners; for strangers, seeing in them for the first time the general poverty and other distressful conditions of our people, handicapped as they have been with legacies from slavery and war, associate these only with the village.

But all Carolinians know that these villagers are of the same stock as themselves, being composed of a class of the less successful, to whom the mills have offered much better wages, with better labor and living conditions than they had before.

It is undeniable that South Carolina mill managements, owing to various causes, come into closer personal touch with their individual operatives and feel more interest in them as a body than do Eastern cotton manufacturers and that South Carolina operatives have been benefited by coming to the mills; that the separate cottages of Southern mill villages, with plenty of air and larger grounds, are better than the city tenements generally used by such operatives in the East, and that the village living conditions, as a rule are steadily improving.

Wants To Help Some One.

For thirty years J. F. Boyer, of Fertile, Mo., needed help and couldn't find it. That's why he wants to help some one now. SONS OF GREAT MEN

Young Hughes and Young Wickersham Follow Fathers' Footsteps.

Leslie's Weekly.

Great men apparently cast their shadows not only before, but behind them, judging from the records of their sons at the Harvard Law School. Cornelius W. Wickersham, son of the Attorney-General, was graduated last year cum laude, after having served as associate editor of the Harvard Law Review, the best law monthly in the country, for two years. As if to maintain the Republican succession to office, the election of Charles Evans Hughes, Jr., of the second-year class, to the Review has been announced. Young Hughes made a brilliant record, obtaining five A's and a B out of a possible six A's. Judge Julian W. Mack, who has been mentioned for the vacancy on the Supreme Court bench, is too young to have a son in the law school, but his counterpart presentment, in the shape of a younger brother, Robert Tandier Mack, now in his third year at the school, ranks among the first four of his class and bids fair to outstrip his famous brother. It remains for Robert Taft, the eldest son of the President, who entered the law school this year, to maintain the high standard set by the sons and brothers of his father's contemporaries.

A Simple Safeguard for Mothers.

Mrs. D. Gilkeson, 326 Ingles Ave., Youngstown, Ohio, gained wisdom by experience. "My little girl had a severe cold and coughed almost continuously. My sister recommended Foley's Honey and Tar. The first dose I gave her relieved the inflammation in her throat and after using only one bottle her throat and lungs were entirely free from inflammation. Since then I always keep a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar in the house. Accept no substitutes. Howard Gardner.

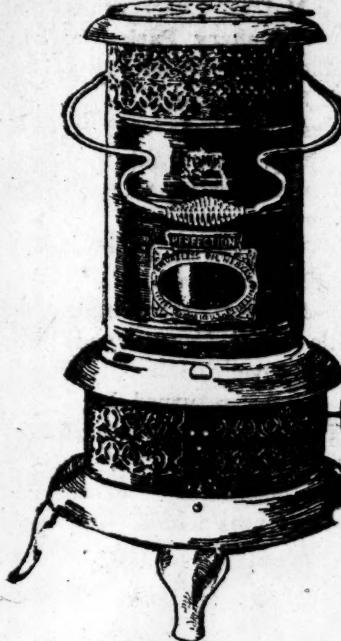

Considerate.

"Why do you keep announcing that you are to be married to an heiress? Does it gratify your vanity?"

"No," replied Baron Fucash, "but it cheers my creditors."—Washington Star.

Ends Winter's Troubles.

To many, winter is a season of trouble. The frost bitten toes and fingers, chapped hands and lips, chilblains, cold sores, red and rough skins, prove this. like illness, it is often necessary quickly to raise the temperature of a room. For instance, in those hours between midnight and dawn, when the day temperature has been allowed to drop, if you are called upon to get up, the room is chilly and cold. It takes a long time to start up a furnace or fire and raise the temperature by ordinary means.

You can instantly heat a room to any desired temperature with a

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless

It quickly gives heat, and with one filling of the font burns steadily for nine hours, without smoke or smell. Has automatic-locking flame spreader which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back, so the wick can be cleaned in an instant. It has a cool handle and a damper top.

An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. It has a filler-cap which does not need to be screwed down; it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for rewicking.

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in Japan or nickel. It is strong, durable and well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

Bracelets
and Rings.

The vogue in bracelets and rings finds its highest expression in the designs that fill our cases this Christmas.

The popularity of this store on all jewelry is on account of the wide variety of patterns carried in stock, from which selection is easily made to suit the taste of each individual and the low prices and fine quality.

The Good Roads Club.

Secretary McLean and the good roads committee of the Chamber of Commerce are working energetically to get a good attendance here Monday for the organization of the Guilford County Good Roads Club and their efforts are being rewarded with responses from the people as letters have come in from all parts of the county from persons who say they will be on hand for the meeting Monday. It is urged that automobile owners get behind the movement and use their influence to make it a success.

SEE SEAT-SAVING RATIO

Virginia Congressmen Propose 217,000 as New Apportionment.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 9.—On the expectation that the population of the United States will be between 91,000,000 and 92,000,000, House members have been calculating to ascertain a basis of representation that will not increase the House membership greatly and at the same time not knock out too many Congressmen from states that have not shown considerable census gains.

Thus, the Virginia delegation has discovered that 217,000 is just the proper proportion. It would enable the Old Dominion to hold its present number of representatives, which is 10, without cutting too deeply into the Democratic and doubtful states that have not shown large increases.

Members of the Virginia delegation today called in their colleagues from Indiana and suggested a hard and fast alliance in favor of 217,000. The way the Virginians put it to the Indiana was that no matter how little the basis of representation is increased over the present figures, Indiana, which gained but 7 per cent in population, will be cut down from 13 to 12 Congressmen.

The Virginians were inclined to look favorably upon the idea, but no definite understanding was reached.

An apportionment act on this basis, it is expected, would not increase the House membership by more than 30 members.

HIGH SCHOOL DEBATE.

Interesting Event Between Members of Diathesian Society Last Evening.

A very interesting debate was held last evening at the Lindsay Street school between the members of the Diathesian Debating Society. The query was: Resolved, That Cuba should be annexed to the United States. The argument by the debaters was quite spirited, as were the rejoinders also, the judges deciding in favor of the affirmative by a vote of two to one. The affirmative was championed by Charles Moseley, Ernest Fields and Harvey Wharton, while Tom Rosenblatt, Joe Renn and Chas. Patterson upheld the contentions of the negative.

There are several debaters in the society who bid fair to help defeat Raleigh and Charlotte in the triangular debate to be held next Spring.

DEATH AT PROXIMITY.

Mrs. J. A. Huneycutt Passes Away After Illness of Three Years.

Mrs. J. A. Huneycutt died yesterday morning at 5:20 o'clock at her home, 24 Maple street, Proximity, following an illness of three years. She was 63 years of age and is survived by her husband and seven children, four boys and three girls. She was a faithful and consistent member of St. Paul's M. P. church, Revolution, and was possessed of those characteristics that endeared her to all her acquaintances.

The remains will be taken to Lexington on the noon train and carried to Shiloh church, near that place, for interment tomorrow.

Shall we Rejoice

Gladness comes with a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed and assisted by the pleasant laxative remedy Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna.

Its beneficial effects are due to the fact that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. To get its beneficial effects always buy the genuine manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

IT IS ALL RIGHT

to ask a friend to do you a favor when it is impossible to secure the favor in any other way. But why ask a friend to go on your bond as surety when the Greensboro Loan & Trust Company can give better security than an individual at no extra cost for its faithful discharge of its duty as a trustee or executor or administrator. Why should you sign a bond by which your "heirs, executors, administrators and assigns are held and firmly bound" to pay for the default of others; perhaps after your death, every dollar of your estate? Tell your friend not to burden you with such a grave responsibility. Let the Greensboro Loan & Trust Company become responsible.

Talk this over with us—it will assist you.
